Aviation News – EAA National new requirements for Young Eagles Flights

EAA News for 2016:

We are working on getting our 501(c)(3) for tax purposes this year. We will be reviewing our bylaws and voting on new bylaws soon so we can get this tax benefit

We have introduced The North Ga 30. The first to fly to all 30 designated airports on our list each year will receive a plaque with their name on it and will also receive a pin for their accomplishments. Any person who completes in within the year will also receive a pin

We will host another scavenger hunt this spring

Our Cracker Fly-In is going to be here before we know it and like in previous years it continues to grow. We will need any available volunteer to help us run it again. More info soon

A few ideas we have discussed for the upcoming year include:
a TRACON visit, The Delta Museum visit, Candler Field Fly-Out.
